

System Architecture

decision-support loop for managerial decisions in patient assignment

The system is a closed loop: every assignment changes the available capacity and affects subsequent decisions.